

I am writing to comment on the "do not call" rule that the FCC is wanting to implement. The Indiana law that we currently have is working very well and I am concerned that the FCC rule would lessen the effectiveness of that law. We used to recieve 5-10 unwanted phone calls per day. We now get less than that per week. I would strongly suggest that no change is made to the current law.